Course Overview

Rationale	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ This course is specifically designed for language instructors and assessors who are interested in understanding and applying both assessment for learning (AfL) and assessment of learning (AoL) within the context of their respective institution's English language syllabuses or courses. It will raise their awareness and appreciation of how AfL complements AoL in language assessment. ▪ In AfL, course participants will be given ample hands-on opportunities to demonstrate how AfL is integrated into everyday English lessons, informing teachers as well as learners of the learning development and process. The key approaches towards implementing such formative assessment involve relooking at the role of the teacher-as-assessor, the nature of effective feedback, and how to create a classroom culture of learner autonomy and collaboration. Issues pertaining to school-based assessment that supports high-quality learning will also be discussed. ▪ In AoL, course participants will be provided with an overview of the principles of summative language testing. They will be taught how to develop test specifications within the context of an English syllabus. They will also be guided to assess summatively the receptive and productive language skills.
Duration	3 weeks (54 hours)
Aims	By the end of the course, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Understand the key concepts, principles and practices of language assessment of learning and for learning; ▪ Identify and design test specifications for AfL and AoL in

	alignment with specific language syllabuses/courses; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Construct reliable, valid and practical types and modes of AfL and AoL ; ▪ Analyse, interpret and use data from and results of AfL to provide informed and constructive feedback to help improve students' language learning; and ▪ Evaluate and appraise both AfL and AoL that are currently used in their institution.
